

Level 2 NVQ Diploma in Performing Manufacturing Operations

Typical jobs: Individuals involved in a manufacturing process. Learners may typically be responsible for the day-to-day running of equipment and for the quality of work. They are also capable of monitoring and controlling equipment and quality and can also exercise some judgment and decision making about the manufacturing process.

The qualification covers: the skills and knowledge of a wide variety of manufacturing activities including those that support a manufacturing operation and those activities which are job specific. Typical Job Individuals involved in a manufacturing process. Learners may typically be responsible for the day-to-day running of equipment and for the quality of work. They are also capable of monitoring and controlling equipment and quality and can also exercise some judgment and decision making about the manufacturing process.

What topics/modules are covered?

- Complying with statutory regulations and organisational safety requirements
- Contributing to effective team working
- Preparing for manufacturing operations
- Concluding manufacturing operations
- Controlling manufacturing operations Other modules are available to suit job role

Qualification gained:

EAL Level 2 NVQ Diploma in Performing Manufacturing Operations.

Entry requirements:

You must be employed in a manufacturing role.

Duration:

3 to 6 months.

Cost:

Free*

To register your interest, email:
courses@nwtc.co.uk

or call 0151 523 0808

* To qualify for a free place, applicants must be a resident of the Liverpool City Region and aged 19 or over. This will need to be confirmed prior to starting the course.